► ART IN PARADISE MUSEUM

Admission to Pattaya's Art in Paradise Museum will be 100 Baht for card holder only upon presentation of your PCEC membership card. Normal admission for foreigners is 500 Baht adults, 300 Baht children. The manager suggests the best times to visit to avoid the crowds are between 9 and 10am in the morning and after 6pm in the evening (closes at 9pm).

Art in Paradise Pattaya is a great place to visit because it is the first illusion art museum in Pattaya. Visitors can enjoy the museum interactively by taking photos of your posing as part of the 3D illusion painting or even touching the painting.

They are located in North Pattaya off of 2nd Road – going north, after passing Soi 1 (on your left), take the next Soi to the right (before you reach the Shell Station).

► KAAN SHOW PATTAYA

The "Kaan" show is the spectacular live fantasy show now at the new Singha D'LuckTheatre on Theprasit Rd. The show is a live fantasy based roughly on the Ramayana, in which a young man in a library falls asleep and is transported into a fantasy of the allegorical book he has been given to read, and passes through nine adventures mirroring the chapters in the book. The fantasy is supported by 90 cast members in the costumes of the time, plus huge mechanical animals, flocks of flying birds, fantastically costumed beings and a huge screen supporting the activity on the stage.

PCEC Members are able to receive a 30% discount on Kaan show tickets at the D'Luck Theatre office in Jomtien when they show their PCEC membership card. If there is any question about the discount please ask for Khun Jay.

Several PCEC members have seen the show and label it "Fantastic" and "Amazing" - worthy of calling it "Las Vegas entertainment in Pattaya", truly a 1st in entertainment in Pattaya. The show starts at 5:00 pm Tuesday through Sunday, offers a second show on Saturdays at 8:30 pm and is closed on Mondays.
