It's really Mexican food - and more. As you walk through the door of Tequila Reef, you leave the noisy nonsense of the Soi 7 behind you, and you are suddenly in Baja California with the typical atmosphere of music and fun. From the beef and fish fajitas, and quesadillas, to the Margaritas and Pina Coladas, this is Mexican food at its best. Build Your Own" Combo Plates with Tacos, Enchiladas and Burritos, Nachos, great Chili and their tasty Tortilla Soup. However, they have other items on the menu besides Mexican food. Try their barbecued pork ribs, guaranteed to simply "fall off the bone." They also have great steaks, fresh seafood, Louisiana "Cajun" specialties, burgers, sandwiches, and Thai food. They also make some great martini cocktails and have probably the largest selection of tequilas in Thailand. Tequila Reef is not hard to find - just go down Beach Road to Soi seven, and walk up the Soi about 40 meters, look to your left and you are there. Or, if you are coming from 2nd Road, walk down Soi seven toward the Bay about 100 meters, look to your right and you are there. If you would like directions or more information, call the Tequila Reef Cantina at 038-414-035, or check their website at <http://www.tequilareef.com>.
